

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010 (ACA)

After reading all the articles and literature, viewing all the web sites and listening to the constant drone on TV and radio, the #1 Question we get daily is, "How does this affect me?"

The answer is, it depends on your particular situation. In only a few minutes, we can help you determine your most likely individual, family or business options and choices for your particular situation and needs.

Prior to contacting us, you may wish to refer to some of the following sources of current information.

Many California residents will qualify for tax credits and/or cost sharing subsidies in 2014. For individuals and families you must fall within 133%-400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) to qualify for assistance. Look at the following chart and see where you fall:

2013 Federal Poverty Guidelines

This link will help individuals and families calculate their potential monthly insurance cost and subsidy or tax credit, if you qualify. You must fall within 133%-400% of the FPL to be eligible for tax credits and/or subsidies.

Health Insurance Calculator - Covered California

Here is a look at the final standard benefit designs that will be offered through Covered California:

Summary of Benefits for Standardized Plans

The following documents and websites provide additional information about the ACA and how it may affect you:

Covered California Online Insurance Marketplace

Getting Covered Fact Sheet

Getting Financial Help For Individuals & Families

Small Business Health Options Program

Small Business Tax Credit

IRS - What you need to know about the small business healthcare tax credit

U.S. Department of Health & Human Services - An excellent summary of the ACA

Covered California - For the latest information available about the ACA

REMEMBER...we can quickly determine your most likely individual, family and business options and choices for your particular situation and needs! Call us at (866) 745-9555 or email to support@jclis.com.